PRESBYTERAL GOLDEN JUBILEE Bishop Provost celebrates 50th Anniversary of Ordination to the Holy Priesthood

By Pamela Seal

LAKE CHARLES — Bishop Glen John Provost was ordained a priest by His Holiness Pope Paul VI on June 29 during the Jubilee Year of 1975. Fifty years later, he celebrates his Golden Jubilee to the Priesthood during the Jubilee Year of 2025. His ordination took place at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

On the Solemnity of Saint Peter and Saint Paul (June 29), the Diocese of Lake Charles recognized this significant milestone during the 11:15 a.m. Mass in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

The congregation included relatives, friends, Religious Sisters, Papal Knights and Dames, laity from around the diocese and the State of Louisiana. Among family members present was the bishop's 94-year-old brother Cyrus Provost Jr., of Morgan City; and niece Annette Guillory who also attended his ordination and First Mass in Rome.

Concelebrating with Bishop Provost were Bishop Emeritus Sam G. Jacobs from the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux, Very Rev. Ruben J. Boller V.G., Pastor of the Cathedral; Rev. Michael Beverung, Parochial Vicar of the Cathedral; Rev. Michael Caraway, Vocations Director; and Rev. Bryce Sibley, Notre Dame Seminary Professor, and Rev. Cyprian O. Eze, both from the Diocese of Lafayette. Also assisting were Deacon Brian Soileau, Deacon Hunter LaRocca, and seminarians from the Diocese of Lake Charles, with Very Rev. Joseph Caraway serving as Master of Ceremonies.

As he expressed gratitude to family and friends who traveled from various cities to celebrate with him, as well as those locally, Bishop Provost said, "It has been a great 50 years. I give thanks to God every day for the gift of the priesthood. I pray we all continue to benefit from the gift of God's grace."

His Excellency extended a special thank you to the musicians from BonaVox who provided music for the Mass. "Music has always been a special part of my life," he said. "The music this morning was superb. Thank you very much!"

After being ordained a priest for the Diocese of Lafayette, Bishop Provost's assignments over the past 50 years have included:

- Our Lady Queen of Heaven Parish for the Summer of 1975
- St. Mary Magdalen Parish in Abbeville, Parochial Vicar, September 1975 to March 1983
- St. Leo IV Parish in Roberts Cove, Pastor, March 1983 to January 1985
- Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist Parish in Lafayette, Pastor, January 1985 to February 1998
- Our Lady of Fatima Parish in Lafayette, Pastor, February 1998 to March 2007
- Third Bishop of Lake Charles, March 2007 to present a Holy Year, Pope Paul VI invited all eligible seminarians throughout the world to be ordained by him on June 29, the Solemnity of Saint Peter and Saint Paul. At the age of 25, then-Deacon Glen John Provost was among 359 ordained to the Holy Priesthood by Pope Paul VI.

Reflecting on his ordination, Bishop Provost shares a special memory that has remained with him all these years.

"My father, Cyrus Provost, along with my sister and her two children, were present for my ordination; my mother having passed away a few years earlier," he recalled. "Each ordinand had been given one 'pass' which permitted only one member from his family to receive Holy Communion from the Pope. My father was the obvious choice to receive."

Joys of Priesthood

"When our Lord asked the disciples 'But who do you say that I am?' (Matthew 16:15), He was asking them who they believed Him to be," Bishop Provost remarked in his golden jubilee homily. "Simon Peter answered with faith, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.'

In living out his own priesthood, Bishop Provost said that one of the greatest joys has been to be present at the death of a person while bringing the Sacraments to the dying.

unfolding over the past 50 years. But now with a half-decade of experience, he offers these words of wisdom for young priests in the early years of their vocation.

"The young priest must stay near to Jesus Christ. He must celebrate Mass every day, spend an hour in prayer every day before the Blessed Sacrament, and be faithful to praying the Divine Office, or what is now called the Liturgy of the Hours. These are non-negotiable."

Bishop Provost has no doubt that Pope St. Paul VI believed himself to be the successor of Peter and the Vicar of Christ, an office Christ himself had given to Peter.

"There we were young men, at Peter's tomb, on the slope of the Vatican hill, stunned by the magnificence of it all, perhaps struck by our unworthiness, beginning a powerful journey of faith. How would we have answered the question, 'But who do you say that I am?' With a fledgling faith, as Peter did, an early faith that would grow in time and with God's grace."

Apostolic Blessing

At the conclusion of the Mass, Father Boller read a letter, written in Latin, from Pope Leo XIV congratulating Bishop Provost on the 50th anniversary of his presbyteral ordination. The papal letter expressed the bishop's "long-standing zeal, exercised with a devoted heart, for the growth in faith of the Christian faithful of the community of Lake Charles, which he leads with a concern for the eternal salvation of their souls."

He was among 359 priests ordained during the Jubilee Year of 1975 on the Solemnity of Saint Peter and Saint Paul.

To Our Venerable Brother Glen John Provost, Bishop of Lake Charles,

We warmly congratulate him as he celebrates the golden anniversary of his presbyteral ordination, as well as for his long-standing zeal, exercised with a devoted heart, for the growth in faith of the Christian faithful of the community of Lake Charles, which he leads with a concern for the eternal salvation of their souls. And while we expect for him every good thing, we gladly impart to him, to his relatives, and most especially to all the Lord's disciples in the community of Lake Charles, Our Apostolic Blessing.

Celebration with Clergy

Priests for the Diocese of Lake Charles along with visiting clergy, concelebrated Mass with Bishop Provost at Our Lady Queen of Heaven Catholic Church on Monday, June 30. On the same date in 1975, the bishop celebrated his First Mass of Thanksgiving in St. Mary Major Basilica before the revered icon, Salus Populi Romani (Protectress of the Roman People).

Among the guests at

Bishop Jarrell's presence was significant since he served as then-Monsignor Provost's bishop when he was appointed as the Third Bishop of Lake Charles in 2007. It was a privilege to have Bishop Jarrell and many priest friends of Bishop Provost present for such a joyous occasion.

"You honor me by taking the time to join this celebration of my golden jubilee," Bishop Provost said in expressing his gratitude. "I am so grateful for the privilege that God has extended to me in serving Him as priest and as a bishop. I am overwhelmed when I consider the marvelous people I have known, both clerical and laity."

The exceptional music for the Mass was under the direction of Colette Bulber Tanner, to whom Bishop Provost acknowledged her "wonderful expertise" in directing the choir and their special effort.

Monsignor Dubois remembered for his presence to others

The Reverend Monsignor Charles Dubois, 85, a longtime priest for the Diocese of Lake Charles, died on Monday, June 23, 2025, at Harbor Hospice. He had been a priest for 60 years following his ordination in 1964.

The Very Reverend Aubrey Guilbeau was celebrant and homilist for the Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday July 2, in the Cathedral of Immaculate Conception. Interment services followed at 4:00 p.m. at Our Lady of Lourdes Cemetery in Erath, La.

In his homily, Father Guilbeau remarked that Monsignor Dubois never allowed his physical limitations to distract his love for Christ, his love for people, and his priestly ministry.

"If I had to sum up Monsignor's life in one word, it would be presence," said Father Guilbeau, recalling that his first assignment as a priest was under the guidance of Monsignor Dubois at St. Margaret of Scotland Catholic Church. "He told me that just as the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist is life-giving for the people, so, too, must my presence be among the people."

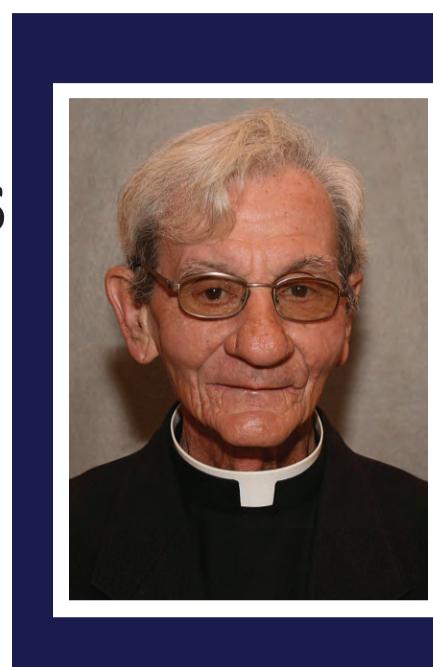

"Monsignor not only gave those words of advice to me as a young priest, but he also lived them," continued Father Guilbeau. "How many times did he unexpectedly show up to a baptism, a wedding, or a funeral? Wherever people were, he was there, and he gave his full attention. He brought the presence of Christ."

Monsignor Dubois was born November 5, 1939, the youngest of three sons to Andre "Simon" Dubois, Sr. and Regina Brown Dubois in Erath, where he was raised, educated, and proud of his family, their roots, and the culture of their hometown. He was affectionately known as "Charlie" by his community and is remembered for his grin that often told an unsaid story of his "humorous, playful and mildly mischievous ventures."

Monsignor Dubois is survived by a sister-in-law, Eldine "Deanie" Sonnier Dubois, ten nieces and nephews, 18 great-nieces and nephews and 20 great-great-nieces and nephews. Numerous cousins are also left to cherish his memory. Preceding him in death are his parents; two brothers, Andre Simon Dubois, Jr. and Richard Camille Dubois, Sr. and sister-in-law, Dolores Bolner Dubois.

A graduate of Immaculata Seminary of Lafayette and Notre Dame Seminary School of Theology in New Orleans, Monsignor Dubois was ordained to the Priesthood on December 19, 1964, in St. John The Evangelist Cathedral in Lafayette. He began his first assignment on January 5, 1965, as Associate Pastor for St. Michael Catholic Church in Crowley and Vice-Chairman of the Committee for Dissemination of Information for Desegregation of Acadia Parish Schools. In January of 1971, Monsignor Dubois was transferred as an Associate Pastor to Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Lake Charles.

He was assigned as Pastor of St. Margaret of Scotland Catholic Church in February of 1974 where he served until being assigned in 1983 as Pastor of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church in Lake Arthur. In 1997, he was transferred to St. Theodore Catholic Church in Moss Bluff and named Administrator of St. Pius X Chapel in Ragley, where he served until his retirement on June 30, 2014. Monsignor Dubois organized and oversaw over 30 ministries that served these two churches. He continued to serve parishioners well into his eighties until his decline in health no longer allowed him.

Several of his honors include: Chaplain to the United States Senate, Chaplain for the Calcasieu Parish Jail, member of Third Degree Lake Arthur Council of Knights of Columbus, Faithful Friar, Monsignor Peters Assembly Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, Citizen of the Year by St. Theodore Knights of Columbus and Clergyman of the Year by the Fourth Degree District of Louisiana and The Times of Southwest Louisiana. He served on the Executive Committee for the Papal visit of John Paul II to New Orleans. Monsignor also devoted much time and service to many local and national alcohol, drug and rehabilitation center Boards of Directors.

He will be most remembered for his immeasurable wealth of knowledge, wisdom, kind yet comical personality, and his unwavering commitment to his ministry.

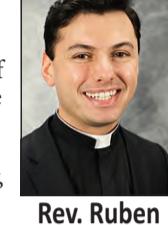

The family is honoring Monsignor's heartfelt devotion to Matthew 25 in kindly requesting that Memorial donations be made to Catholic Charities of Southwest Louisiana at www.catholiccharitiesswla.com/donate or Abraham's Tent at 2424 Fruge Street, Lake Charles, LA 70601.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Rev. Monsignor Charles Dubois

NOVEMBER 5, 1939 - JUNE 23, 2025

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Reed joins Diocese as Supervisor of Child Nutrition

Caroline Reed

The Office of Catholic Schools announces Ms. Caroline Reed as its Child Nutrition Supervisor, effective July 1, 2025.

A resident of Lake Charles and a parishioner of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, Ms. Reed shares a little bit about her background:

"As a registered dietitian, I'm excited to bring my experience and passion for wellness to my role as Child Nutrition Supervisor for the Diocese of Lake Charles. With a strong foundation in nutritional science and hands-on experience across Southwest Louisiana, I am dedicated to prioritizing the health, wellness, and nutrition status of students. I hold a master's degree in Nutritional Sciences from McNeese State University, building on the strong academic foundation I gained at Sacred Heart Catholic School in Ville Platte and during my undergraduate studies at McNeese State University."

"During my dietetic internship, I completed over 1,300 hours of supervised practice across various hospitals, clinics, community programs, and the school board office of Calcasieu Parish, gaining diverse experience in clinical, community, and food service settings. This training, combined with my four years of experience in the food service industry, has provided me with an in-depth understanding of nutritional needs, food safety, and food service operations, which I'm eager to share and apply in my new role!"

Two Seminarians accepted to Candidacy for Holy Orders

Two seminarians for the Diocese of Lake Charles received their call to candidacy on June 11, 2025, the Feast of St. Barnabas, Apostle.

Bishop Glen John Provost accepted Cameron Fontenot and Michael DesOrmeaux to Candidacy for Holy Orders during the 12:05 p.m. Mass in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

His Excellency remarked, "It is appropriate to have the reception to candidacy on the Feast of St. Barnabas, a great prophet, apostle, teacher. He is an important figure in the early Church and certainly has a great deal to say to us on this occasion."

Serving as concelebrants were Very Rev. Ruben Buller, V.G., Pastor of the Cathedral; Rev. Michael Caraway, Director of Vocations; and Monsignor Jace Eskin, Pastor of St. Martin de Porres. Also assisting were Deacon Hunter LaRocca, Rev. Levi Thompson, and seminarians. Very Rev. Joseph Caraway served as Master of Ceremonies.
